

The ECCO Group™ announces the appointment of Kevin Locke as Director of Procurement of ECCO Heating Products Ltd.

January 2019, Langley, British Columbia – After an extensive and comprehensive search, the appointment of Kevin Locke to the position of Director of Procurement at Langley’s Corporate Operations office was effective November 15th, 2018.

Kevin is a senior team leader with over 15 years of management and corporate experience. He has spent the previous eight years at CHC Helicopter, a world leader in helicopter transportation, working in its corporate head office and leading its global tax function in over 30 countries. Kevin was a member of the board of directors for a subsidiary of CHC Helicopter and led several corporate initiatives at CHC Helicopter including acquisitions and restructurings, helicopter financings, and supply chain improvements. He was also the lead negotiator for all of CHC Helicopter’s international tax audits. Prior to joining CHC Helicopter, Kevin started his career at Deloitte as an economic analyst and then continued to KPMG as a manager.

Kevin will be working with all corporate buying positions including customs and freight, vendor management, steel purchasing, as well as corporate marketing. He will be working closely with the Director of Sales Branch Operations and the ECCO Supply™ team as well, to strengthen the relations ECCO™ has with all their vendor partners.

About ECCO™

ECCO™ opened in 1960 supplying HVAC contractors in Western Canada pre-fabricated sheet metal products and has become well known as a manufacturer and provider of consistently high quality products along with great customer service and expertise. ECCO™ continues to develop and pursue new markets and opportunities. Today, throughout all their divisions, ECCO™ provides a broad range of services, quality products and exceptional value to their customers. Visit The ECCO Group online at www.theeccogroup.com.